

Leaders Leading!

Within Tri-County Cradle to Career Collaborative (TCCC), there are Leadership Networks which each hold accountability and influence over areas critical to improving the economic and social mobility for our region. Our Community Leaders Council (CLC) is one of those networks and is responsible for shared work to shift policy, practices, and systems, work collaboratively, and align support to this end.

We are grateful for the commitment and dedication of Kendra Stewart, Professor of Political Science at College of Charleston, and Director of the Joseph P. Riley, Jr. Center for Livable Communities, and member of the Community Leadership Council.

Stay tuned for more CLC highlights!
