

COMMUNITY CONNECTION

Message from TCCC Board Chair

Under the leadership of new Board Chair Kenya Dunn, TCCC is poised to move from a sustaining, civic infrastructure organization to a systems change organization*. Hear Kenya's announcement about her Top Four Priorities for advancing TCCC.

Tri County Cradle to Career utilizes the StriveTogether Theory of Action to monitor milestones of success. This framework acts as a guide for partnerships in developing civic infrastructure that meets and adapts to the unique needs of a community. The rigorous standards and focus on results distinguish our approach from traditional collaboration and other collective impact approaches. The Theory of Action is the Cradle to Career Network's approach to quality collective impact. For more information about*
